RESTAURANT SELECTION

MICHELIN GUIDE
2026

Description

Le Virunga is a Michelin Guide-recognized restaurant located in Montréal's vibrant Plateau-Mont-Royal neighbourhood, celebrating the rich culinary traditions of sub-Saharan Africa through locally sourced Québec ingredients. Founded by Chef Maria-José de Frias and her daughter Zoya de Frias, originally from the Democratic Republic of the Congo, the restaurant offers a warm and intimate dining experience inspired by the Virunga National Park. Chef Maria-José's refined cuisine highlights authentic African flavours with modern creativity, while Zoya has curated an exclusively South African wine list that perfectly complements the menu. An exceptional choice for VIP dinners and small corporate groups, Le Virunga offers guests a unique gastronomic journey that blends African heritage, Québec terroir, and outstanding hospitality.
